

Flaps	A (10-9)	B (8)	C (7-6)	D(5-1)	F(0)	Total Points
Front Flap	Includes the title of the book, author, name, graphic, and date.	Includes only four out of the five elements.	Includes three of the five elements.	Includes two or one of the five elements.	Does not include any of the required elements.
Left Flap	List the main characters and describes their personalities and includes at least two symbols that describes any of the characters.	List some of the main characters and then describe their personality and includes one symbol.	The flap contains only two of the three elements that are required.	The flap contains only one of the three elements.	Does not include any of the elements.
Center Flap	Includes a very detailed summary and uses descriptive words.	Includes a summary and uses some descriptive word.	Includes a summary, but does not use descriptive words.	Includes a bad summary.	Does not include a summary.
Right Flap	Includes why they wanted to read the book using descriptive words, rates the book from a scale of 1-10, and includes why or why not people should read the book.	Includes why they wanted to read the book using a few descriptive words, includes why or why not people should read the book, and rates the book from a scale of 1-10.	Includes only two of the three elements required.	Includes only one of the three given elements required.	Does not include any of the given elements.

Side Flap	Includes the settings, the problem, and the solution.	Includes some of the settings, the problem, and solution.	Includes only the problem and solution.	Includes only one of the elements.	Does not include the elements.
Back Flap	Creates an outstanding "About the Author" section that talks about the author's life and includes at least one picture of the author.	Creates a good "About the Author" section that talks about the author's life and includes at least one picture of the author.	Creates an okay "About the Author" section that talks about the author's life, but forgets to include one picture of the author.	Creates a bad "About the Author" section that talks a little about the author's life.	Does not include an "About the Author" section.
Neatness	The project has no errors, erasures, and it is easy to read by another person.	The project has almost no errors, erasures, and it is easy to read.	The project contains some errors, distracting erasures, and it is fairly readable.	The project is very messy, has many errors, erasures, and it is not readable.	The student did not have a project to turn in.
Spelling	Three or less spelling errors.	Four to seven spelling errors.	Eight to ten spelling errors.	Eleven to fourteen spelling errors.	Contains more than fifteen spelling errors.	